“Times of Change”

- a game and Gesamtkunstwerk at the old tennis court in Hollufgård Skulpturpark 2021 based on Carl Nielsen and Anne Marie Carl-Nielsen.

*Having no destination,
I am never lost.*

— Ikkyu, japanese poet, 1394-1481

Tennis. In tennis games are scored in just four points. From love (or zero), the first point is 15, then 30, then 40, then game point, which wins the game. Love-all means that the score is zero-zero. No one has scored a point as yet.

Telephone or Chinese Whispers, Russian scandal, Operator, Grapevine, Téléphone arabe, Stille Post is a popular children's game. Players form a line or circle, and the first player comes up with a message and whispers it to the ear of the second person in the line. The second player repeats the message to the third player, and so on. The game has no winner: The entertainment comes from comparing the original and final messages. Intermediate messages may also be compared; some messages will become unrecognizable after only a few steps.

The players:

0

Love is Nothing.

15

Love is an egg
in the vanishing dew
a sudden lightning flash:

You. Me.

We.

30

Eggs in cool grass
hatch's against all odds:
To break is to love.

Brick dust and leafs of clay
wooden-balls and sounds of seeds.

Love is all there is.

40

Sitting in high chairs
babys feed by air.
Whats in the air?
Wait for needles
to free you of fear.

Write the lines, listen close:
telephone from afar:
Time to change.
In tennis
love is nothing
but everything in life.

Advantage

Game point

Advantage you.

Advantage me.

Advantage in.

Advantage out.

Advantage us.

An abstract graphic design on an orange background. It features several overlapping squares in various shades of orange, teal, and grey. A thin white circle is centered over the composition, framing the text. The text 'You win' is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font, positioned horizontally across the center of the circle.
